

Adam Kaye Solicitor

adam.kaye@pinneytalfourd.co.uk

01708 963 402

Adam studied his law degree at the University of Hertfordshire and completed his Legal Practice Course at The College of Law in 2013. Adam completed his training contract at a firm in Essex and has since worked at various London and Essex based Legal 500 firms.

Adam joined Pinney Talfourd in 2025 and focuses exclusively on Private Client and Court of Protection work.

Adam acts for a wide range of individuals, with a corresponding wide range of needs. Adam drafts Wills that suit the individual and their circumstances – sometimes straightforward, sometimes more complex with trust provisions in place, aimed at dealing with specific issues.

Many of Adam's clients also choose to put in place Lasting Powers of Attorney as an insurance policy for the future and Adam is highly experienced in preparing these and registering them with the Office of the Public Guardian.

Adam's approach to probate work and, more generally the administration of estates, reflects sensitivity and efficiency, an approach designed to support his clients when they need it the most.

Adam is also focusing on court of protection matters where he is assisting Matthew Edwards and Cansu Hussein with regards to clients who have lost mental capacity and unfortunately do not have Lasting Powers of Attorney already in place.
