Carolina Colli studied law at the University of Greenwich. She graduated in 2017 with a First Class (Honours) degree. She undertook her Masters in Law at the University of Bristol, graduating in 2018 with a Merit.

Carolina joined a south Essex law firm as a paralegal, before then undertaking her Training Contract in 2019, alongside studying for the Legal Practice Course at weekends at BPP Law School. She obtained a Distinction in her LPC and later qualified as a solicitor in 2021.

Carolina practiced in the South Essex area as a family solicitor, mainly focusing on family remedy and private children law for a number of years, subsequently being promoted to Senior Associate. Carolina regularly assisted with training within the Family Department and also supervised multiple trainee solicitors.

Carolina joined Pinney Talfourd in 2026 as an Associate Solicitor. Carolina specialises in divorce and financial remedy cases, as well as private children matters. She also has experience advising separating couples who are unmarried, as well as Family Law injunctions.

Carolina is a member of Resolution.
