01277 283 695

Jade Mercer studied her law degree at the University of Brighton, graduating in 2018 with a first class honours degree. Initially after completing her undergraduate degree, Jade worked as document review paralegal on an independent inquiry into historic child sexual abuse, before joining a regional Legal 500 law firm as a paralegal in their family department.

Jade completed her master's in Law, Business and Management at the University of Law in 2021, graduating with a distinction, whilst undertaking her training contract at the same firm.

Jade subsequently joined Pinney Talfourd's family department in April 2022, to complete the remaining few months of her training contract, before qualifying in June 2022.

Jade runs her own caseload whilst assisting a partner in the team on complex and high net worth cases.
