Keely Chalker qualified as a Legal Executive in 1993 whilst working for a local authority in Essex. She went on to work on many community projects in Havering working with elderly and vulnerable people. She worked with Age Concern to provide advice and information to older people and also worked on a project supporting elderly people moving into an extra care facility in Havering.

Keely established the Havering Dementia Action Alliance in conjunction with the Alzheimer's Society and was a carers assessor in the London Borough of Hackney. She also ran peer support groups in Redbridge for people with dementia and their carers.

Keely Chalker joined Pinney Talfourd in 2015 as a Private Client Executive and was made an associate in 2022.
