Paul Berry studied at the University of Hertfordshire and qualified as a Solicitor in 2008.

Paul worked in an Essex high street firm, before joining Pinney Talfourd in 2013, going on to become Head of Department and then also a Partner.

Paul is a highly experienced solicitor and has dealt with all types of Residential Property transaction, most recently with a bias towards high value and/or high risk matters, with a strong focus on service, communication and efficiency.

With over 15 years' experience in property law, Paul has an extensive understanding of the legal complexities and challenges associated with high value property transactions. He has helped numerous clients navigate through the intricacies of property law and achieve successful outcomes in their transactions.

Paul also spends a large portion of his time running a busy Property department, providing support to his colleagues.
